MEMORANDUM

It has been noticed with grave concern that some Revenue Officers do not even know as to when the collection of both the crops becomes due. In this connection it is stated that the girdawari of Kharif harvest generally commences from 1st October and the preparation of Dhal Bachh is to be completed by 31st December. Collection of Kharif harvest becomes due in January/February and is to be completed by 15th February. Similarly, the girdawari of Rabi harvest takes place on 1st March and its Dhal Bachh is to be completed by the end of May. Its recovery falls due in July/August and is to be completed by 15th August. It is, therefore, desired that the Revenue Staff should be fully acquainted with this procedure.

2. You are also requested to intimate if collection of Kharif 1978 has been effected. This information should reach this office within a week positively.
